Tempo di Marcia

There's a Flag to which we pledge al - le - giance, Stars and Stripes, of Might-y ships are speed-ing 'cross the o - cean, Bear-ing men, the Red and White and Blue, To keep it wav-ing there, We'll glad-ly do our share, fin-est in the world, Who won't be home to stay, Un-til the glor-ious day, We'll pledge our lives and give our mon - ey too. Though you may not wear the blue or kha - ki,
When ty-rants flags shall be 'for ev - er furled. Do you want them back? Then you must help them, Yet your dol - lars help to win the fray, If your hearts in the right, for your

CHORUS

But boys we're up and at em! Up and at 'em!
For now we're up and at em! And we'll get 'em!
For our cause is just and true.
Up with Old Glo-ry, red, white and blue, Moth-ers of France we'll save your sons for you. We are com-ing, Soon we'll have them run-ning, We are in to do our share,
